 - The balloon transport system has a stop south of the Lumber Yard.
 - There is also a spirit tree to the Grand Exchange, and a fairy ring just north-west of Varrock, using the code DKR.
 - The canoe transport system also has three landing points near Varrock, stopping at the Champions' Guild, and the bridges to Barbarian Village and Edgeville.
 - Players can use a charged combat bracelet or buy a Chronicle and teleport cards from Diango's Toy Store to teleport to the Champions' Guild, south-west of the Varrock south gate.
 - The skills necklace can be used to teleport to the Cooks' Guild just west of the Grand Exchange.
 - The ring of wealth can be used to teleport to the Grand Exchange.
 - The ring of the elements can be used to teleport near to the Earth Altar entrance found north-east of Varrock.

 - Locations
 - Stores Varrock has many stores, most of which are located in or around Varrock Square:
 - Aubury's Rune Shop — a store selling most types of runes. Players can also speak to Aubury here to be teleported to the Rune Essence mine.
 - Baraek's fur stall — a stall ran by Baraek, the fur trader in Varrock Square.
 - Estate Agent — an agent who offers player-owned house services such as relocation and redecoration, and can sell players their house.
 - Fancy Clothes Store — another clothes shop, found in the south-eastern part of the city. This store features heavily in the Hunter skill, and it is here that furs can be made into camouflage and other hunter armour.

- Hairdresser's — Emma and Suzie's hairdresser salon (👩) can be found north of the museum. Accessing the makeover interface at the hairdresser is free of charge.
- Horvik's Armour Shop — a store where players can buy platebodies and chainbodies as well as platelegs and some leather armour.

- Thessalia's Fine Clothes — a store selling robes, capess, gloves, and boots. Thessalia will also change a player's appearance for free. Players who have lost their scythe or bunny ears may reclaim it from here if lost. Frog tokens from the frog random event can also be exchanged for either a frog mask, a royal frog costume, or a lamp at this shop.
- Varrock Apothecary — home of a scientist who makes strength potions and energy potions for free-to-play players with the proper ingredients.
- Varrock General Store — one of the most popular stores in the game. New players can buy a newcomer map here, which can help them find their way around the Asgarnia and Misthalin. Players can sell whatever they wish to the store, but it's typically filled with low-level items. It's often hard to sell items to this general store as many people sell their items here, causing the store's inventory limit to be reached very easily.
- Varrock Herald stand — source for the newspaper of Varrock, sold by Benny for 50 coins.
- Varrock Swordshop — a place for players to buy bronze, iron, steel, black, mithril and adamant daggers, swords and longswords.

 - Varrock Diary Discount Perk
 - Players who have completed tiers of the Varrock Diary may buy noted battlestaves at a discounted price of 7,000 coins each once per day from the barrel on the 1st floor^[US] of the shop. The number of staves available depends on the player's progress in the Varrock Diary.
 - Buying discounted battlestaves is a good daily moneymaking method, as players can immediately sell them on the Grand Exchange, where they usually go for over 8,000 coins each. The current price of a battlestaff is 7,473. Players can also choose not to sell them and use them to train Crafting by making elemental battlestaves, which is especially useful for Ironmen.

- The table below shows the corresponding number of available battlestaves for each of the Varrock Diary sets, and the profit made from selling them on the Grand Exchange.
